

Education

Princeton University, Princeton, NJ 2018-Present
PhD student in History of Science

DePauw University, Greencastle, IN 2013-2017
Bachelor of Arts in History and French Literature (minor in Latin American and Caribbean Studies)
Summa Cum Laude, Phi Beta Kappa

Publication

Book

Kawaue Midori, Schlotterbeck John, Wilson Wesley, and Klingensmith Harold, eds. James Riley Weaver's Civil War: The Diary of a Cavalry Officer and Union Prisoner of War, 1863 – 1865. Kent: Kent State University Press, 2019.

Online Media

Kawaue Midori. "DePauw and Japan: History of the People and their Accomplishments (1876-2018)." Private Academic Library Network of Indiana, September 2019.

Kawaue Midori. "The Other 9/11: Remembering and Forgetting." The Prindle Post, September 11, 2015.

Kawaue Midori. "Where Does the Confederate Battle Flag Belong Today?" The Prindle Post, July 1, 2015.

Awards and Fellowships

External

Gilder Lehrman History Scholar Award 2017
Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History

Historic Deerfield Summer Fellowship 2016
Historic Deerfield, Inc.

Grew-Bancroft Fellowship 2013-2017
The Grew-Bancroft Foundation

Princeton

East Asian Studies Summer Pre-Dissertation Fellowship 2019

Princeton Institute for International and Regional Studies Summer Research Grant 2019

Conference and Presentations

- “Historicizing Native American Creationism” 2019
MIT-Harvard-Princeton conference in the history of the physical sciences
- “What was Liberal and Conservative Science during the Unitarian Controversy?” 2019
History of Science Program Seminar, Princeton University
- Commentary: Hayley Negrin, “Cockacoeske's Dilemma: An Algonquian Woman's Story of Slavery and Freedom During Bacon's Rebellion” 2019
Colonial Americas Workshop, Princeton University
- Commentary: Sally Cochrane, “Science at the École des Beaux-Arts in the Nineteenth Century” 2019
History of Science Program Seminar, Princeton University
- Commentary: Molly Horne, “Homer: Putting the “Human” in “Humanities” Since 1795” 2019
History of Science Program Seminar, Princeton University
- “The Cross in Nature and Nature in the Cross” Undergraduate Research Conference on Science, Technology, Medicine, and Society 2017

Research Experience

- Princeton University, Department of Astrophysics, Princeton, NJ 2018-Present
Research Assistant
- Research the role of African Americans in the development of the astrophysics department during the 19th century
 - Write blog entries for the Princeton Slavery Project website
- Princeton University, School of Architecture, Princeton, NJ 2018-2019
Research Assistant (to Lucia Allais and Forrest M. Meggers)
- Identify, summarize, and translate sources on the material science of reinforced concrete during the 1960's in Japan
- Princeton University, Department of History, Princeton, NJ 2018
Research Assistant (to Franziska Seraphim)
- Read and interpreted textual and visual primary sources on Sugamo War Criminals Prison in Tokyo after World War II, including a collection of drawings, sketches, cartoons, and photographs produced by the inmates during their incarceration at Sugamo
 - Translated and summarized secondary source material on Sugamo

Service

Princeton University

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Colonial Americas Workshop Organizer | 2019-2020 |
| History of Science Program Student Representative | 2019-2020 |
| Women's Committee of the Graduate Historical Association | 2018-2019 |

Skills

Languages: Native proficiency in Japanese and English; Fluent in French;
Reading proficiency in Classical Japanese, and German

Software: Proficient in Geographic Information Systems (GIS) software including
ArcGIS and Google Earth