

LAURA F. EDWARDS

History Department
Princeton University
136 Dickinson Hall
Princeton, NJ 08544-1017
laura.edwards@princeton.edu

EMPLOYMENT

Princeton University

Class of 1921 Bicentennial Professor of the History of American Law and Liberty, 2021-

Duke University

Peabody Family Professor of History and Gender, Sexuality and Feminist Studies, 2014-2020;
Professor, History, 2005-2014; Associate Professor, History, 2001-2005; Visiting Associate Professor, History, 2000-2001

University of California, Los Angeles

Associate Professor, History, 2000-2001; Assistant Professor, History, 1997-2000

University of South Florida

Assistant Professor, History, 1993-1997

University of Chicago

Visiting Assistant Professor, History, 1992-1993

Newberry Library

Administrative Assistant, Family and Community History Center, 1990-1992

EDUCATION

Ph.D., History, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, 1991

M.A., History, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, 1987

B.A., American Culture, Northwestern University, 1985

FELLOWSHIPS AND VISITING APPOINTMENTS

Old Dominion Research Professorship, Humanities Council, Princeton University, 2023-2-24

American Council of Learned Societies, Postdoctoral Fellowship for Full Professors, 2019-2020

National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowship, the Newberry Library, Chicago, Illinois, 2019-2020
Fellowship, National Endowment for the Humanities, Research Triangle Park, North Carolina, 2019-
2020, declined

Visiting Neukom Fellows Chair in Diversity and Law, American Bar Foundation, Chicago, Illinois, 2016-2017

Mellon Research Fellowship, the Library Company of Philadelphia and the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, one month in 2014

John Simon Guggenheim Foundation Fellowship, 2012-2013

Rockefeller Foundation Fellowship, National Humanities Center, Research Triangle Park, North Carolina, 2007-2008

Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowship in the Humanities, the Newberry Library, Chicago, Illinois, 2006-2007

Senior Postdoctoral Fellowship, Stanford Humanities Center, 2006-2007, declined

National Endowment for the Humanities Postdoctoral Fellowship for University Professors, 1999-2000

Research Fellow, American Center for Politics and Public Policy, UCLA, 1998-99

Presidential Young Faculty Award, University of South Florida, 1996-97

Smithsonian Postdoctoral Fellowship, National Museum of American History, Washington, D.C., 1995

Monticello College Foundation Postdoctoral Fellowship, Newberry Library, Chicago, Illinois, 1994

Research and Creative Scholarship Award, Research Council, University of South Florida, summer 1994

Albert J. Beveridge Research Grant, American Historical Association, 1991

AWARDS

- John Phillip Reid Prize, awarded by the American Society for Legal History, for Only the Clothes on Her Back: Clothing and the Hidden History of Power in the Nineteenth-Century United States
- Best Book Prize, award by the Society for the History of the Early Republic, for Only the Clothes on Her Back: Clothing and the Hidden History of Power in the Nineteenth-Century United States
- Merle Curti Prize, awarded by the Organization of American Historians for the best book in social history, 2022, for Only the Clothes on Her Back: Clothing and the Hidden History of Power in the Nineteenth-Century United States
- Choice Outstanding Academic Title, 2015, for A Legal History of the Civil War and Reconstruction: A Nation of Rights
- Dean's Award for Excellence in Mentoring, the Graduate School, Duke University, 2013
- Howard D. Johnson Award for Outstanding Undergraduate Teaching, College of Arts and Sciences, Duke University, 2009-2010
- Charles Sydnor Prize, awarded by the Southern Historical Association for best book in southern history, 2009, for The People and Their Peace: Legal Culture and the Transformation of Inequality in the Post-Revolutionary South
- Littleton-Griswold Prize, awarded by the American Historical Association for best book in American Law and Society, 2009, for The People and Their Peace: Legal Culture and the Transformation of Inequality in the Post-Revolutionary South
- Fletcher M. Green and Charles W. Ramsdell Award, awarded by the Southern Historical Association for best article published in the Journal of Southern History in 1998-1999, for "Law, Domestic Violence, and the Limits of Patriarchal Authority in the Antebellum South"
- Vernon Carstensen Award, awarded by the Agricultural History Society, for best article published in Agricultural History in 1998, for "The Problem of Dependency: African Americans, Labor Relations, and the Law in the Nineteenth-Century South"
- Choice Outstanding Academic Book, 1997, for Gendered Strife and Confusion: The Political Culture of Reconstruction
- Martin Luther King, Jr. Award for Best Scholarly Article in African-American History Published in the Years 1991-1992, for "Sexual Violence, Gender, Reconstruction, and the Extension of Patriarchy in Granville County, North Carolina"

PUBLICATIONS

Books

- Only the Clothes on Her Back: Clothing and the Hidden History of Power in the Nineteenth-Century United States* (New York: Oxford University Press, 2022)
- A Legal History of the Civil War and Reconstruction: A Nation of Rights* (New York: Cambridge University Press, 2015)
- The People and Their Peace: Legal Culture and the Transformation of Inequality in the Post-Revolutionary South* (Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 2009)
- Scarlett Doesn't Live Here Anymore: Southern Women in the Civil War Era* (Urbana: University of Illinois Press, 2000; paperback ed., 2004)
- Gendered Strife and Confusion: The Political Culture of Reconstruction* (Urbana: University of Illinois Press, 1997). Excerpted in: Paul Escott, David R. Goldfield, Elizabeth Hayes Turner, and Sally G. McMillan, eds., Major Problems in the History of the American South, 2nd ed. (Boston: Houghton Mifflin, 1999); Sylvia D. Hoffert, ed., A History of Gender in America: Essays, Documents, and Articles (New York: Prentice Hall, 2003)

Edited Books

W. Fitzhugh Brundage ed., and Laura F. Edwards and Jon F. Sensbach, assoc. eds., A New History of the American South (Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 2023)

Articles

- “Commentary on Claire Priest’s Credit Nation: Property Laws and Institutions in Early America,” Yale Journal of Law and Humanities 33 (2021): 263-73
- “James and His Striped Velvet Pantaloon: Textiles, Commerce, and the Law in the New Republic,” Journal of American History 107 (September 2020): 336-61
- “Response: Rebecca Scott’s ‘Discerning a Dignitary Offense,’” Law and History Review (Spring 2020): 571-613
- “The Legal World of Elizabeth Bagby’s Commonplace Book: Federalism, Women, and Governance,” Journal of the Civil War Era 9 (December 2019): 504-523
- “Sarah Allingham’s Sheet and Other Lessons from Legal History,” Journal of the Early Republic 38 (Spring 2018): 121-47
- “The Reconstruction of Rights: The Fourteenth Amendment and Popular Conceptions of Governance,” Journal of Supreme Court History 42 (November 2016): 310-328; revised and republished as “The Fourteenth Amendment: Transforming Our Relationship to Rights and the Federal Government,” Insights in Law and Society 17 (Winter 2017): 4-10; and “Rights that Made the World Right: How Freed Slaves Extended the Reach of the Federal Courts and Expanded Our Understanding of the Fourteenth Amendment,” Judicature 102 (Summer 2018): 64-75
- “Textiles: Popular Culture and the Law,” Buffalo Law Review 64 (January 2015): 193-214
- “The History in ‘Critical Legal Histories,’” Law and Social Inquiry 37 (Winter 2012): 187-199
- “The Peace: The Meaning and Production of Law in the Post-Revolutionary United States,” University of California, Irvine Law Review 1 (September 2011): 565-585
- “Southern History as U.S. History,” Journal of Southern History 75 (August 2009): 1-32
- “The Forgotten Legal World of Thomas Ruffin: The Power of Presentism in the History of Slave Law,” North Carolina Law Review 87 (March 2009): 855-900
- “Status Without Rights: African Americans and the Tangled History of Law and Governance in the Nineteenth-Century U.S. South,” American Historical Review 112 (April 2007): 365-393; revised and republished as “Reconstruction, Women, and Political Culture,” in Paul D. Escott, ed., Reconstruction in North Carolina (University of North Carolina Press, 2008), 155-191; excerpted in Jules R. Benjamin, A Student’s Guide to History, 12th ed. (New York: Bedford/St. Martin’s 2010)
- “Enslaved Women and the Law: The Paradoxes of Subordination in the Post-Revolutionary Carolinas,” Slavery & Abolition, 26 (August 2005), 305-323; republished in Gwyn Campbell, Suzanne Miers, and Joseph C. Miller, eds., Women in Slavery: The Modern Atlantic, vol. 2. (Athens: Ohio University Press, 2007), 128-51
- “Law, Domestic Violence, and the Limits of Patriarchal Authority in the Antebellum South,” Journal of Southern History 65 (November 1999): 733-70; republished in Nancy Bercaw, ed., Gender and the Southern Body Politic (Jackson: University Press of Mississippi, 2000), 63-86; J. William Harris, ed., The Old South: New Studies of Society and Culture (New York: Routledge, 2007), 295-319; and Richard Chused and Wendy Williams, eds., Law and Gender in American History (Durham: Carolina Academic Press, 2016)
- “The Problem of Dependency: African Americans, Labor Relations, and the Law in the Nineteenth-Century South,” Agricultural History 72 (Spring 1998): 313-40
- “The Disappearance of Susan Daniel and Henderson Cooper: Gender and Narratives of Political Conflict in the Reconstruction-Era U.S. South,” Feminist Studies 22 (Summer 1996): 363-386; republished in Martha Hodes, ed., Sex, Love, Race: Crossing Boundaries in North American History (New York: New York University Press, 1999), 294-312
- “‘The Marriage Covenant Is at the Foundation of All Our Rights’: The Politics of Slave Marriages in North Carolina after Emancipation,” Law and History Review 14 (Spring 1996): 81-124; republished

as “Marriage, Households, and the Politics of Reconstruction in North Carolina,” in Glenda Gilmore, Jane Dailey, and Bryant Simon, eds., Race, Gender, and Politics in the New South, 1865-1980 (Princeton: Princeton University Press, 2000), 7-27

“Sexual Violence, Gender, Reconstruction, and the Extension of Patriarchy in Granville County, North Carolina,” North Carolina Historical Review 68 (July 1991): 237-260

Book Chapters and Essays

“The South and the New Nation, 1783-1820,” in The New History of the American South, in W. Fitzhugh Brundage, ed. (Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 2023), pp. 165-197

“The Legal Status of Women and the Female Relatives of Virginia Law Professors in the Nineteenth Century,” in Meggan Cashwell, ed., The History of Legal Education at Virginia Law (Charlottesville, VA: University of Virginia Press, expected 2023)

“Foreword,” in Stewart L. Winger and Jonathan W. White, eds., “Ex Parte Milligan Reconsidered: Race and Civil Liberties from the Lincoln Administration to the War on Terror (Lawrence, KA: University of Kansas Press, 2020), pp. ix-xii

“Epilogue,” in Van Goss and David Waldstreicher, eds., Emancipations, Reconstructions, and Revolutions: African American Politics and U.S. History from the First to the Second Civil War (Philadelphia: University of Pennsylvania Press, 2020), pp.

“Law as Social History,” in Markus D. Dubber and Christopher Tomlins, eds., The Oxford Handbook of Legal History (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2018), pp. 119-133

“Afterword,” in The Civil War and the Transformation of American Citizenship, Paul Quigley, ed. (Baton Rouge: Louisiana State University Press, 2018), pp. 217-236

“Epilogue: Emancipation and the Nation,” in William Link, ed., Rethinking American Emancipation: Legacies of Slavery and the Quest for Black Freedom (New York: Cambridge University Press, 2015), pp. 252-270

“Reconstruction and the History of Governance,” in Gregory P. Downs and Kate Masur, eds., The World the War Made (Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 2015), pp. 30-44

“Laura Edwards on the Early Republic, the Civil War, Reconstruction, and Women’s History,” in Megan L. Bever and Scott Suarez, eds. The Historians Behind the History: Conversations with Southern Historians (Birmingham: University of Alabama Press, 2015), pp. 26-45

“The Material Conditions of Dependency: The Hidden History of Free Women’s Control of Property in the Early Nineteenth Century South,” in Sally Hadden and Patricia Minter, eds., Signposts: New Directions in Southern Legal History (Athens: University of Georgia Press, 2013), pp. 171-92

“The Contradictions of Democracy in American Institutions,” in Joanna Innes and Mark Philp, eds., Re-Imagining Democracy in the Age of Revolutions (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2013), pp. 40-54

“What Constitutes a Region?” Diplomatic History 36 (June 2012): 483-486

“Up from the Pedestal: The Influence of Anne Scott’s Ladies on Southern Women’s History,” in Elizabeth Payne, ed., Writing Women’s History: A Tribute to Anne Firor Scott (Jackson: University Press of Mississippi, 2011), 28-63

“Civil War and Reconstruction,” in Christopher Tomlins and Michael Grossberg, eds., The Cambridge History of Law in America, vol. 2, The Long Nineteenth Century (1789-1920) (New York: Cambridge University Press, 2008), 313-44

“The People’s Sovereignty and the Law: Defining Gender, Race, and Class Differences in the Antebellum South,” in Stephanie Cole and Alison M. Parker, eds., Beyond Black and White: Race, Ethnicity, and Gender in the United States South and Southwest (College Station: Published for the University of Texas, Arlington by Texas A.& M. University Press, 2004), 3-34

“Reflections on Law, Culture, and Slavery,” in Winthrop Jordan, ed., Slavery and the American South (Jackson: University Press of Mississippi, 2003), 82-92

“Emancipation and Its Consequences,” in John B. Boles, ed., The Blackwell Companion to the American South (Oxford: Blackwell Publishers Limited, 2001), 269-83

- “Women, Gender, and Labor,” in William L. Barney, ed., The Blackwell Companion to 19th Century America (Oxford: Blackwell Publishers Limited, 2001), 223-37
- “Women and Domestic Violence in Nineteenth-Century North Carolina,” in Michael Bellesiles, ed., Lethal Imagination: Violence and Brutality in American History (New York: New York University Press, 1999), 115-36; republished as “Women and the Law: Domestic Discord in North Carolina After the Civil War,” in Donald Nieman and Christopher Waldrep, eds., Local Matters: Race, Crime, and Justice in the American South (Athens: University of Georgia Press, 2000), 125-54
- “Captives of Wilmington: The Riot and Historical Memories of Political Conflict, 1865-1898,” in Timothy B. Tyson and David S. Cecelski, eds., Democracy Betrayed: The Wilmington Race Riot of 1898 and Its Legacy (Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 1998), 113-41

Other

- “You Can't Go Home Again: Politics, War, and Domestic Life in the Nineteenth-Century South,” Reviews in American History 25 (December 1997): 570-76
- “Women and Work in Florida: A Photographic Essay,” Tampa Bay History 18 (Fall/Winter 1996): 32-48
- “U.S. Women's History,” in the Encyclopedia of Social History (New York: Garland, 1994), 775-777
- Book reviews: Law and History Review, Journal of American History, Journal of Southern History, North Carolina Historical Review, and Georgia Historical Quarterly

INVITED TALKS AND PRESENTATIONS

- “Materials of Legal Meaning: How Textiles Change Our Understanding of Law in the Nineteenth-Century United States,” Stover Lecture, History Department, Purdue University, March 2023
- “Only the Clothes on Her Back: Clothing and the Hidden History of Power in the Nineteenth-Century United States,” Art School, Indiana University, February 2023
- “The Fourteenth Amendment and the Reconstruction of Rights after the Civil War,” keynote for Constitution Day, Center for Civil Engagement, James Madison University, October 2022
- “Only the Clothes on Her Back: Clothing and the Hidden History of Power in the Nineteenth-Century United States,” Anne Firor Scott Annual Lecture, Gender, Feminist, and Sexuality Studies, Duke University, March 2022
- “The Reconstruction Amendments: America’s Rights Revolution,” keynote for the conference, “Constitutional Reconstruction: The History of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments,” Notre Dame Law School and the Center for Citizenship and Constitutional Government, Notre Dame University, October 2021
- “The Fourteenth Amendment and the Reconstruction of Rights After the Civil War,” for the University of Las Vegas, Nevada’s Constitution Day, September 2018
- “James and His Striped, Velvet Pantaloon: Textiles, Commerce, and Law in the New Republic,” for the Workshop on Democracy in America, The Tobin Project, Cambridge, Massachusetts, May 2018
- “The Reconstruction of Rights After the Civil War,” Teach-In on the Strength and Fragility of Constitutions, University of Oklahoma, September 2017
- “The Fourteenth Amendment and the Reconstruction of Rights,” Jack Stalworth Lecture, University of South Alabama, September 2017
- “Take No Account of Anything Made Entirely Within Yourself: The Legal Power of Textiles and the Status of Women Between the Revolution and the Civil War in the United States,” Legal History Roundtable, American Bar Foundation, May 2017
- “Petitioning in Local Forums: Democratic Participation in an Undemocratic System, 1780-1860,” History of American Democracy Conference, The Tobin Project, Cambridge, Massachusetts, May-June 2017
- Panelist, “Fourteenth Amendment: Transforming American Democracy?” Leon Jaworski Public Program Series, Sponsored by the American Bar Association, Washington, D.C., May 2017

- “Textiles and the Material Culture of Law and Governance,” for Emancipations, Reconstructions, Revolutions: African American Politics and U.S. History in the Long Nineteenth Century, 1776-1920, CUNY Graduate Center, New York City and the McNeil Center in Early American History, Philadelphia, February 2017
- Panelist, “The History of the Courts and Individual Rights,” A History of the Federal Judiciary, Federal Judicial Center, Washington, D.C., April 2016
- “The Reconstruction of Rights: The Fourteenth Amendment and Popular Conceptions of Governance,” Leon Silverman Lecture, Supreme Court Historical Society, October 2015
- “Law Outside the Nation: Overlapping Jurisdictions and Conflicting Conceptions of Citizenship,” keynote address for “Citizenship in the Era of the American Civil War,” The Virginia Center for Civil War Studies, Virginia Tech, April 2015
- “Looking at Nation-Building Through Local Eyes: Rethinking Law in the Reconstruction-Era United States,” Milton Klein Lecture, History Department, University of Tennessee, March 2014
- “Reconstruction, Rights, and the Nation’s Legal Culture,” for “The World the Civil War Made,” 2013 Steven and Janice Brose Distinguished Lecture and Book Series, Civil War Era Center, Penn State University, June 2013
- “Law and Culture in Conversation,” Keynote Address for “Disrobing the Law in American Culture: The 2013 American Studies Graduate Student Conference,” Princeton University, April 2013
- “Women, the Civil War, and the Legal Transformation of the United States,” 2013 Annual Gary C. & Eleanor G. Simons Lecture, University of Florida, April 2013
- “The People and Their Peace: Legal Culture in the Post-Revolutionary South,” Third Annual Society of the Cincinnati Lecture, Virginia Commonwealth University, November 2012
- “Women and Reconstruction,” New Voyages to Carolina: Redefining the Contours of the Old North State, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill and North Carolina Central University, October 2012
- “The Civil War and the Legal Transformation of the United States,” for “Another March Madness: The Civil War at 150,” Duke University, March 2012
- “How Legal History Can Help Us Redefine the Contours of Southern History,” keynote address, Southern Intellectual History Conference, University of Alabama, February 2011
- “The Meaning of Democracy in the Post-Revolutionary United States,” Two Eras of Democracy Conference, Oxford University, England, June 2010
- “The Peace: The Meaning and Production of Law in the Post-Revolutionary United States,” Law As . . . Theory and Method in Legal History, University of California, Irvine, Law School, April 2010
- “The Hidden History of the Southern Legal System,” Region, Class, and Culture: New Perspectives on the American South, Honoring Pete Daniel, Rhodes College, Memphis, Tennessee, June 2009
- “Rethinking Women and Political Activism in the South, Whisnant Lecture, Clemson University, April 2009
- “Women’s History in the South before 1880,” Texas Women, American Women: New Historical Scholarship and Fresh Approaches, Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, Texas, February 2009
- “Honey, I’m Going to See a Magistrate: Rethinking Women and Political Action in the Nineteenth-Century South,” in the series Understanding the South, Understanding America, The Creation of Citizenship in the Nineteenth Century South and Beyond: An International Symposium, University of Florida, January 15-17
- “The Perils of Inclusion,” Workshop on American Democracy in Context, Oxford, England, June 2008
- “Up from the Pedestal: The Influence of Anne Scott’s Ladies on Southern Women’s History,” Porter L. Fortune Symposium in Honor of Anne Firor Scott, Oxford, Mississippi, March 2008
- “The Forgotten Legal World of Thomas Ruffin: The Power of Presentism in the History of Slave Law,” The Perils of Public Homage: Thomas Ruffin and State v. Mann in History and Memory, Center for the Study of the American South, November 2007

- “African Americans and the Law,” Low Lecture in History, History Department, University of Maryland, Baltimore County, March 2007
- “Politics in the Backyard: The Lessons of Gender for the Political History of Reconstruction,” Glasscock Lecture, Texas A&M University, October 2006
- “Status Without Rights: African Americans’ Tangled History with Law, Governance, and the State,” Jean Gimbel Lane Humanities Lecture Series, Northwestern University, January 2006
- “Reflections on Legal History from a Recovering Social Historian,” J. Willard Hurst Summer Institute in Legal History, sponsored bi-annually by the American Society for Legal History, Madison, Wisconsin, June, 2005
- “Honey I’m Going to See a Magistrate: The Problem of Women, Rights, and the Law in the Nineteenth-Century South,” delivered at LaTrobe University, Melbourne, Australia, and the University of Sydney, Australia, October, 2003
- “Legally Active Wives: The Problem of Individual Rights, Citizenship, and Marriage for Women in the Post-Emancipation South,” delivered at the symposium, “Making, Remaking, and Unmaking Modern Marriage,” organized by the Law School, University of Southern California, February, 2003
- “Slaves, Law, and Justice in the Post-Revolutionary South,” Summersell Lecture in Southern History, University of Alabama, October, 2002
- Commentator on “Reflections on Law, Culture, and Slavery,” by Ariela Gross, delivered at the Porter L. Fortune, Jr. History Symposium, “Slavery in Retrospective,” University of Mississippi, October, 2000
- “What’s Next? The Nineteenth-Century South after Gender, Race, and Class,” delivered at the Walter Prescott Webb Memorial Lectures on “Beyond Black and White: Race, Ethnicity, and Gender in the United States South and Southwest,” University of Texas at Arlington, March, 2000
- “Captives of Wilmington: The Riot and Historical Memories of Political Conflict, 1865-1898,” delivered at “The 1898 Wilmington Race Riot and its Legacy: A Symposium,” Wilmington, North Carolina, October, 1998
- “When Physical Violence is Not Assault: Domestic Relations, Legal Personhood, and Political Discourse in the Antebellum South,” delivered at the Porter L. Fortune, Jr. History Symposium on “Gender and the Southern Body Politic,” University of Mississippi, October, 1997
- I have also given talks or presentations on various aspects of my work for: History Workshop, Yale Law School; the American Studies Program, Princeton University; History Department, Brown University; Legal History Seminar, Vanderbilt University; University of Wisconsin Law School; University of Virginia Law School; History Department, Dartmouth, University; History Department, College of Williamsburg; History Department, Harvard University; History Workshop, Tulane University; Law and History Workshop, University of Oregon Law School; History and Politics Workshop, University of California, Berkeley; History Department Speakers’ Series, University of South Florida; Legal History Workshop, Law School, University of Minnesota; Legal History Workshop, Law School, University of Wisconsin, Madison; Legal History Workshop, Johns Hopkins University; History Forum, Duquesne University; History Colloquium, Washington University; History Department, Franklin and Marshall University; Legal History Seminar, American Bar Foundation; Labor History Seminar, Newberry Library; Political History Workshop, University of Chicago; Early American History Seminar, Newberry Library; Early American History Seminar, University of Georgia; History Department, Clemson University; Seminar in Southern History, University of Virginia; History Department, University of Texas, Austin; Legal History Workshop, University of Michigan; History Colloquium, Yale Law School; History Colloquium, Harvard Law School; Public Lecture Series in History, University of North Carolina, Wilmington; Workshop on Gender and History, University of Minnesota; Public Policy Speaker Series, Northwestern University; Organized Research Program in Southern History, University of California, San Diego; Seminar Series, American Bar Foundation, Chicago, Illinois; The Social History Workshop, University of Chicago; Seminar in American Social History, the Newberry Library; Afro-American Studies Colloquium, University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana.

CONFERENCE PAPERS

- Panelist, “Authors Meet Readers: New Histories of Property in Early America,” American Society for Legal History, Chicago, Illinois, November 2022
- “The High Cost of Peace: Women and the Fourteenth Amendment,” Rebuilding the State and Society After Civil War, Kent State University, Kent, Ohio, February 2020
- Panelist, “Roundtable: Law, Equity, and Accountability in the Early Republic,” American Society for Legal History, Boston, Massachusetts, November 2019
- Panelist, “Roundtable: Legal History and the Persistent Power of State and Local Governments: Historiography,” a Pre-Conference Workshop, American Society for Legal History, Boston, Massachusetts, November 2019
- Panelist, “New Directions in the Study of the Fourteenth Amendment,” Society of Civil War Historians, Pittsburgh, May 2018
- “Extending Conceptions of Women’s Political Participation,” for the roundtable, “State of Field: Which Way Forward? A New Synthesis for Nineteenth-Century Women’s Rights,” Organization of American Historians, Sacramento, April 2018
- Panelist, “The Reconstruction Amendments in Law, Politics, and History,” Organization of American Historians, New Orleans, Louisiana, April 2017
- “The Hidden World of Governance in Jacksonian America and the Artificial Line between Legal History and Political History,” for the conference, Andrew Jackson at 250: Race, Politics, and Culture in the Age of Jacksonian “Democracy,” Yale University, December 2017
- “Only the Clothes on Her Back: Textiles, Law, and Commerce in the Nineteenth-Century United States,” American Society for Legal History, Las Vegas, October 2017
- Panelist, “The History of the Courts and Individual Rights,” History of the Federal Judiciary Conference, Washington, D.C., April 2016
- “Popular Conceptions of Law and Citizenship: Layered Jurisdictions and the Expansion of Government Power During the Civil War Era,” American Society for Legal History, Denver, Colorado, November 2014
- “Popular Culture and the Law,” Opportunities for Law’s Intellectual History, a conference at the Baldy Center, University of Buffalo, October 2014
- “The People and the Law: The Civil War and the Transformation of the Nation’s Legal Culture,” for “From Property to Personhood: The Intents and Unintended Consequences of the Reconstruction Amendments,” the Third Biennial UnCivil Wars Conference, Athens, October 2013
- “Rethinking the Legal Context of Emancipation,” for the roundtable, “Commemorating the 150th Anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation,” Law and Society Association, Boston, May 2013
- “The Meaning of Size: The Local vs. the Global,” for the roundtable, “Are There Costs to ‘Internationalizing’ History, Part 1: The Intellectual and Geo-Politics of Research Agendas,” American Historical Association, New Orleans, Louisiana, January 2013
- “Slave Law,” American Society for Legal History, Dallas, Texas, November 2010
- “Individual Rights and the Transformation of Slave Law, 1787-1860,” Organization of American Historians, Seattle, Washington, March 2009
- “The Forest and the Trees: Political History in the Early Republic,” Roundtable on Sean Wilentz, The Rise of American Democracy, Organization of American Historians, Minneapolis, Minnesota, April 2007
- “Going Local: Historicizing Citizenship in the Early Republic,” American Society for Legal History, Baltimore, Maryland, November 2006

- “Sex, Authority, and the State in the Nineteenth-Century South,” Southern Historical Association, Atlanta, Georgia, October 2005
- “Social History and Been in the Storm So Long,” for the roundtable, “The Scholarship of Leon Litwack,” Organization of American Historians, San Jose, California, April 2005
- “Enslaved Women and Slave Law in the Post-Revolutionary U.S. South,” Fourth Avignon Conference on Slavery and Forced Labor, Avignon, France, October 2002
- “Gender, Women, and the Politics of Emancipation,” Berkshire Conference on the History of Women, Storrs, Connecticut, June 2002
- “What’s Love Got to Do With It: Wives and Agency in the Law,” Roundtable on Hendrik Hartog, Man and Wife in America, American Society for Legal History, Chicago, Illinois, November 2001
- “Visible Invisibility: The Problem of Women and Violence in the Antebellum U.S. South,” British Association for American Studies, Swansea, Wales, April 2000
- “Violence and Authority in the Post-Revolutionary South,” American Society for Legal History, Toronto, Canada, October 1999
- “Legal History and Women’s History,” Society for History of the Early American Republic, Lexington, Kentucky, July 1999
- “Bodies, Violence, and Citizenship in the Nineteenth-Century U.S. South,” British Association for American Studies, Glasgow, Scotland, March 1999
- “Physical Violence, Authority, and Emancipation in the U.S. South,” Organization of American Historians, Indianapolis, Indiana, April 1998
- “How can they do it on three barrels of corn a year?: African Americans, Labor, Dependency, and the Law in the Nineteenth-Century South,” Agricultural History Society Symposium on “African Americans in Southern Agriculture, 1877-1945,” Chapel Hill, North Carolina, June 1997
- “‘If I had not been as strong as I am’: African-American and Poor White Women’s Legal Claims in Postemancipation North Carolina,” American Society for Legal History, Richmond, Virginia, October 1996
- “Law and the Politics of Domestic Discord in Postemancipation North Carolina,” Organization of American Historians, Chicago, Illinois, March 1996
- “Public Space and the Limits of Universal Rights in the U.S. South,” American Historical Association, Atlanta, Georgia, January 1996
- “Local History and the History of Reconstruction,” Southern Historical Association, Louisville, Kentucky, November 1994
- “‘The Marriage Covenant is at the Foundation of all Our Rights’: Slave Marriages and Reconstruction Politics,” Organization of American Historians, Atlanta, Georgia, April 1994
- “Sexual Violence and the Politics of Reconstruction,” American Historical Association, San Francisco, California, January 1994
- “Sexual Violence and Political Struggle: Finding Women in Reconstruction Politics,” Berkshire Conference on the History of Women, Poughkeepsie, New York, June 1993
- “Reconstructing Race: The Courtroom as an Arena of Political Struggle during Reconstruction in the U.S. South,” Social Science History Association, Chicago, Illinois, November 1992
- “‘I was going to see a magistrate’: The Courts as an Arena of Political Struggle in the Postbellum South,” American Society for Legal History, New Haven, Connecticut, October 1992
- “‘To act like men’: The Collapse of Radical Politics in a North Carolina County,” Organization of American Historians, Chicago, Illinois, April 1992
- “Defiance and Protection: The Reconstruction-Era Struggle Over Concepts of Womanhood in Granville County, North Carolina,” Second Southern Conference on Women’s History, Southern Association of Women’s Historians, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, June 1991
- “Reconstruction’s Achilles Heel: Gender and Politics in Granville County, North Carolina,” National Graduate Women’s Studies Conference, Ann Arbor, Michigan, March 1991

“Wage Labor and Tenancy in Granville County, North Carolina, 1865-1900,” Southern Historical Association, New Orleans, Louisiana, November 1990

“Sexual Violence, Gender, and Reconstruction,” North Carolina Women's History Symposium, Raleigh, North Carolina, March 1990

OTHER CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION

Commentator, “Feminist Activism in the South: Recovering the History of Race and Class-Conscious Feminist Activism in the South,” Southern Labor Studies Association, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, September 2022

Panelist, “First Book Workshop,” Society for Civil War Historians, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, June 2022

Moderator, “New Histories of Black Citizenship: A State-of-the-Field Roundtable,” Society for the History of the Early Republic, July 2021

Comment, “Negotiating Emancipation in the Reconstruction South,” Organization of American Historians, April 2021

Comment, “The Social Nature of Public Action: Southern Women and Politics in the Mid-to-Late Nineteenth Century,” Southern Historical Association, Louisville, Kentucky, November 2019

Comment, “Politics in the Civil War Era,” Remaking Political History Conference, Purdue University, West Lafayette, Indiana, May 2019

Comment, on Gautham Rao, “Slavery’s Leviathan: The State the Slaveholders Made,” Legal History Roundtable, American Bar Foundation, Chicago, Illinois, May 2019

Comment, “Reconstructing Culture: Objects, Images, and Texts in the Work of Slave Emancipation,” Organization of American Historians, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, April 2019

Comment, “Author Meets Readers: Kimberly Welch’s Black Litigants in the Antebellum American South,” American Society for Legal History, Houston, November 2018

Comment, “Preyer Panel,” a panel composed of recipients of the award for best conference papers submitted by graduate students, American Society for Legal History, Toronto, Canada, November 2016

Comment, “Workers’ Compensation and the Historicization of Labor,” Law in the History of Capitalism: A Conference, American Bar Foundation, June 2016

Comment, “Reconstructing the Family: Reform, Kinship, and Intimacy in the Aftermath of Emancipation,” Organization of American Historians, Providence, Rhode Island, April 2016.

Comment, “Bad Credit: Capital, Commodification, and Slavery in the Nineteenth Century,” Southern Historical Association, Little Rock, Arkansas, November 2015

Comment, “Immigrants and Other Foreigners in America, 1600-2000,” United States Legal History Roundtable, American Bar Foundation, Chicago, April 2013

Comment, “Race and the Law: African Americans in Southern Courts, 1865-1920,” Organization of American Historians, Washington, D.C., April 2010

Comment, “African Americans, Native Americans, and Narratives of Citizenship,” American Historical Association, New York, New York, January 2009

Comment, “Southern Women and the Law in the Nineteenth Century,” Seventh Conference on the History of Women, Southern Association for Women Historians, Baltimore, Maryland, June 2006

Comment, “Wives and Mothers,” American Society for Legal History, Cincinnati, Ohio, November 2005

Comment, “Changing Notions of Manhood and Womanhood during the Civil War,” Southern Historical Association, Memphis, November 2004

Panel Discussant, “Open Forum: Academic Integrity Committee,” Organization of American Historians, Boston, Massachusetts, March 2004

Comment, “Race, Gender, and the Law,” Southern Historical Association, Baltimore, Maryland, November 2002

- Comment, “Race, Gender, Politics, and Crime: Reconstruction in the Urban South, 1867-1877,” Organization of American Historians, Washington, D.C., April 2002
- Comment, “The Southern Home Front Under Attack,” Southern Historical Association, Louisville, Kentucky, November 2001
- Comment, “Interracial Violence, 1850-1960: Oppression, Resistance, and Retaliation,” Organization of American Historians, St. Louis, Missouri, March 2000
- Comment, “Southern and New England Women in Crisis Times,” Southern Historical Association, Ft. Worth, Texas, November 1999
- Comment, “Abortion Debates, Gender, National Identities, and the State,” Organization of American Historians, Toronto, Canada, April 1999
- Comment, “Race and Law in the American South,” American Historical Association, Seattle, Washington, January 1998
- Comment, “Law and the Status of Women in the Nineteenth-Century South,” Fourth Southern Conference on Women's History, Charleston, South Carolina, June 1997
- Comment, “Having Sex and Making Race: Sex, Heredity, and Nation-Building in American Social Movements,” Berkshire Conference on the History of Women, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, June 1996
- Panel Discussant, “Enriching the Curriculum through the Use of Primary Sources: Integrating Legal History in the U.S. Survey Course,” sponsored by the History Teaching Alliance and the National History Education Network at the annual meeting of the Organization of American Historians, Chicago, Illinois, March 1996
- Panel Discussant, “How Did They Do It in the 19th Century? Historicizing Women's Activism,” at the conference, “Natural Allies? Academics and Women's Activism,” Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, May 1995
- Comment, “The Ascendancy of White Supremacy: Racial Politics, Gender, and Imperialism at the Turn of the Century,” Organization of American Historians, Washington, D.C., March 1995
- Comment, “Religion and Ethnicity in Rural Women's Lives,” Fifth Conference on “Rural and Farm Women in Historical Perspective,” Washington, D.C., December 1994
- Comment, “The Culture of Labor Reform in Nineteenth-Century Boston,” American Studies Association, Boston, Massachusetts, November 1993

COURSES

- A History of American Democracy (lecture)
- U.S. Legal History (lecture)
- Introduction to U.S. History, to 1877 (lecture)
- Women, Gender, and Sexuality in U.S. History (lecture)
- Women and Popular Culture in U.S. History (lecture)
- Cold War Culture (lecture)
- Clothing in U.S. History (research seminar)
- Southern Women in U.S. History (seminar)
- Southern History as U.S. History (seminar)
- Graduate courses on various topics, including women, gender, race, law, and the nineteenth-century United States

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- Atlanta History Center: Atlanta Cyclorama, Advisory Board, 2018-2019; Civil War and Reconstruction Exhibit, Advisory Board, 2021-2022
- American Bar Association and the Federal Judicial Center, faculty presenter, Summer Institute for Teachers, 2018

- American Bar Foundation: Affiliated Scholar (2016- ); Faculty Mentor in the Postdoctoral Fellowship Program (2018-)
- American Council of Learned Societies: fellowship selection committee member, 2014-2017.
- American Historical Association: Littleton-Griswold Book Prize Committee, 2000-2002; 2015-2017
- American Society for Legal History: Cromwell Article Prize Committee, 2020-2022; Reid Book Prize Committee, 2017-2020; Chair, Publications Committee, 2013-2015; Cromwell Book Prize Committee, 2012-2014; Co-Chair, ASLH Program Committee, Annual Meeting, 2008; Board of Directors, 2003-2005, 2022-2024; Program Committee, 2004 annual meeting; Program Committee, 2003 annual meeting; Associate Editor, Law and History Review, 1998-2003
- Editorial and Advisory Boards: Journal of Supreme Court History, 2018- ; Journal of the Civil War Era, 2018-; Southern Legal Studies Book Series, University of Georgia Press, 2015-present; Law&History (the journal of the Australian and New Zealand Law and History Society) 2014-present; Law and History Review, 2005-present; Journal of Southern History, 2004-2008; Agricultural History, 2000-2007; North Carolina Historical Review, 2001-2006
- Amicus Briefs: Conrad Smith et al. v. Donald J. Trump et al, 2022 (Reconstruction-Era Civil Rights Acts and the January 6 Insurrection); Black Lives Matter v. Donald Trump and others, 2020 (Reconstruction Amendments and related federal enforcement legislation); Young v. Hawaii, 2019 and Flanagan v. Becerra, 2018 (gun regulation in relation to the Second Amendment); U.S. v. Windsor, 2013 and Golinski v. U.S., 2012 (gay marriage)
- Manuscript Workshops, recent: Sarah Gronningsater (2015); Alaina Roberts (2017); Abby Cooper (2018); Elizabeth Lhost (2018); Susan Pearson (2019); Kate Masur (2019); Rebecca Plant and Frances Clark (2020); Brennan Rivas (2020); Caroline Newhall (2021); Alison LaCroix (2022); Kellen Heniford (2022)
- National Constitution Center, Philadelphia, PA: Advisory Board, Exhibit on the Fourteenth Amendment, 2019; Co-Editor, Top 20 Documents Relating to Constitutional Debates Between 1789 and 1860, with Kurt Lasch, 2022
- National Endowment for the Humanities: Selection Committee, Postdoctoral Fellowships for University Teachers and Independent Scholars, 2002; Instructor, NEH Summer Institute on "The Legal Status of Southern Women," Furman University, June-July, 1995.
- National Humanities Center: Fellowship referee, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011; unit on Southern Women and the Civil War, online teacher training seminar.
- National Women's History Museum: Advisory Board, 2016-2020
- Newberry Library: Selection Committee, Monticello Foundation Postdoctoral Fellowship, 2007; Selection Committee, NEH/Mellon Postdoctoral Residential Fellowships, 2001; National Historic Landmark Nomination for the Puckett Family Farm in Satterwhite, North Carolina, submitted to the National Park Service for the Newberry Library's Theme Study in American Labor History, 1996; Selection Committee, Lloyd Lewis Postdoctoral Fellowship, 1995, 1998, 1999; Reviewer, Short Term Fellowships, 1993-99
- Organization of American Historians: Distinguished Speaker Program, 2003- ; Chair, Committee on Ethics and Professional Conduct, 2005-2007; Ad Hoc Academic Integrity Committee, 2003-2004
- Referee, American Historical Review, Journal of Southern History, Law and History Review, Law and Social Inquiry, Journal of American History, Feminist Studies, Agricultural History, St. Martin's Press, University of Illinois Press, University of Pennsylvania Press, University of North Carolina Press, University of Florida Press, Harvard University Press
- Southern Association for Women Historians: Past President, 2008-2009; President, 2007-2008; First Vice-President, 2006-2007; Second Vice-President, 2005-2006; Chair, Willie Lee Rose Book Prize Committee, 2005; Chair, Program Committee, Sixth Annual Conference of the SAWH, Athens, Georgia, June 2003; Chair, Julia Cherry Spruill Book Prize Committee, Chair, 1999; Chair, Long-

Range Planning Committee, 1998-1999; Nominating Committee, 1997-98; Book Exhibit Chair, annual meeting, 1997; Graduate Committee, 1995-96

Southern Historical Association: Chair, Program Committee, 2014 Annual Meeting; Executive Council, 2010-2012; Editorial Board, 2009-2012; Nominating Committee, 2003-2004; Simkins Book Prize Committee, 2002-3; Program Committee, annual meeting, New Orleans, 2001

Richards Civil War Era Center, Penn State University: Academic Advisory Committee

Tobin Project: Organizer with Naomi Lamoreaux and Maggie McKinley, Working Group on America Democracy, 2017-

Other:

Interview, "The Durrs of Montgomery," documentary by the Center for Documenting Justice, University of Alabama.

Interview, "The Civil War through the Window of Art," documentary by Jesse Bryant Wilder.

Faculty, Graduate Student Workshop, Law and Society Association, St. Louis, Missouri, May 1997