The spring JP topic must be in a geographical field and time period different from that of the fall JP. Any questions about this should be addressed to Prof. Canaday, Departmental Representative (mcanaday@princeton.edu).

January 26, 2018 (Friday) By 3 p.m. notify etta@princeton.edu of Adviser commitment or alternatively provide her with sp JP topic and time period.

January 31 (Wednesday) By 5 p.m. final adviser assignments will be emailed.

February 12 (Monday) Junior should meet with Spring JP Adviser to discuss JP topic, by this date at the latest.

February 28 (Wednesday) Deadline to submit application for Davis Center research funding.

April 10 (Tuesday) Junior submits partial first draft to JP Adviser (at least 10 pages), by this date at the latest.

April 17 (Tuesday) Students receive partial first drafts back, with comments.

May 8 (Tuesday) FINAL JP Due Online by 5:00 p.m. You will receive instructions in April on where to upload the paper.

NB: Over the course of the semester, students will also be required to submit an annotated bibliography (of primary and secondary sources), an outline, and a prospectus.

All written work submitted in the course of the semester should properly cite and attribute any ideas and information that are not the student’s own to the sources from which they have been derived. Failure to do so constitutes plagiarism.

The Honor Pledge should accompany each piece of work submitted:
“This paper represents my own work in accordance with University regulations.”

This is a general JP calendar. Dates set by your particular JP Adviser may differ and take precedence and should be followed.
